

ELLA BLAKE BRISLEN

Location: Auckland | Height: 160 cm
Hair Colour: Brown | Ethnicity: European | Eye Colour: Hazel | Ethnicity: Māori

Ella Blake Brislen (they/them, Ngāi Tahu, Ngāti Kuri) is an emerging actor, producer, creator, and general maker of things. Having just graduated from Unitec Te Pukenga's acting programme, their most recent work includes creating and acting in the soon to be released film "Cream Donuts," playing Dobchinsky in "The Inspector General" and being in the ensemble for Auckland Theatre Company's "King Lear" (both 2023).

FEATURE FILM

2023	Cream Donuts	Role: Tiu	Director: Jess Bennett
2023	Sweet Peaches	Role: Taylor	Director: Reife Loveland
2023	Watch Them Run	Role: Esther	Director: Zanique Eilers
2022	To Things Never Changing	Role: Amaia	Director: Mirene Casteltort

TELEVISION & STREAMING

2021	The Wilds	Role: Yale Student	Amazon Studios - Director: John Polson

THEATRE

2024	For Country	Role: Directing Intern & Swing	Auckland Theatre Company's Youth Company - Director: Shay McKendrick
2024	UnChristianlike Behaviour	Role: Sofia	Legacy 7 - Director: Shay McKendrick
2023	King Lear	Role: Ensemble Captain	Auckland Theatre Company - Director: Benjamin Kilby-Henson & Michael Hurst
2023	The Inspector General	Role: Piotr Ivanovich Dobchinsky	Te Pūkenga Unitec - Director: Elena Stejko
2022	BOYS	Role: El	Te Pūkenga Unitec - Director: Cherie Moore
2022	Dinomite: The Dino Show	Role: Penelope the Paelentologist	Butterfly Creek - Director: Holly Waldrom
2022	Quick Fix	Role: Mary	Te Pūkenga Unitec - Director: Sofie Boyes
2022	Screen Workshop	Role: Actor	Director: Jarden Turner

LIVE PERFORMANCE

2022	Dino Show	Role: Penelope the Paelentologist	Butterfly Creek - Director: Holly Waldrom

SKILLS

Accents	American, American - Southern , Australian, English, English - Cockney, English - RP, French, Irish
Dance	Contemporary, Jazz, Musical Theatre, Tap
Instruments	Ukelele
Languages	Sign Language, Te Reo Maori » Intermediate
Singing	Alto, Musical Theatre