

AADIT TANDON

Location: Auckland | Height: 165 cm
Hair Colour: Brown | Eye Colour: Brown | Ethnicity: Indian

At the age of five, too anxious to blow out the candles of his own birthday cake, Aadit's parents sent him to acting lessons to improve his self confidence. In the past four years, he's excelled in over 70 drama competitions, achieved Grade 7 in Trinity musical theatre and speech, participated in 30 amateur theatre productions, and earned a Zony award for his role in "Peter Pan the musical" in 2023. Aadit is skilled in dance, drama, and singing, has attended various training events, and created films for competitions and festivals, such as the recent, "Through The Roof" national film festival. Additionally, he volunteers at the Glass Ceiling Arts Collective, teaching performing arts to children with different abilities. Aadit is a versatile actor, equally adept in both dramatic and comedic roles, showcasing his seasoned talent and ability to breathe life into any character.
