

DANIELA VINAGRE

Location: Auckland | Height: 153 cm

Eye Colour: Brown | Hair Colour: Brown | Ethnicity: European | Ethnicity: Portuguese

Daniela is an all round creative based in Tamaki Makaurau. When she is not working on her craft as an actor, you may be surprised to find her making you a coffee at your favourite brunch spot. But as much as Dani enjoys her job, she looks forward to her days off when she can hide away in the studio to nurture her strong dance background, as well as train in aerial silks and screen acting work.

She is currently writing her first full-length play.

Having been born in Portugal, moved to Norway at age 15, and moved to New Zealand at age 20, Dani has a freshness the industry is truly not prepared for. She can not wait to take it by storm!
