
KEARA TYLER

Location: Auckland | Height: 161 cm
Hair Colour: Blonde | Ethnicity: European | Eye Colour: Hazel

Keara Tyler is an Auckland-based actor with experience across screen and stage. She has appeared in international productions including One of Us Is Lying and Cowboy Bebop, alongside a growing body of work in short films and digital series.

More recently, Keara has built a strong presence in the rapidly expanding vertical drama space, taking on multiple lead and supporting roles across high-volume short-form series. Her credits include titles such as The Double Life of My Billionaire Wife, The Stock Queen Returns and Vampire's Forbidden Kiss, reflecting her ability to carry emotionally driven narratives in fast-paced, close-up performance formats.

With a solid foundation in theatre and ongoing professional training in screen acting, Keara brings a natural, grounded quality to her work. Her experience across both traditional and emerging formats highlights her adaptability, consistency, and strong on-camera presence.

She continues to develop her craft through workshops and industry collaborations, establishing herself as a versatile and reliable performer across film, television and contemporary digital platforms.
