REVIEWS:

“Michael Jamieson adds a delicious sliver of camp menace to the scheming Octavius.” - Tim George, Theatrescenes on Antony & Cleopatra at the Pop-up Globe (2016)

“Most impressive among the men is Michael Jamieson, whose Octavius Caesar would not have been out of place in an episode of Game of Thrones. He played this cold, disagreeable character as I’ve always read him to be and that’s pretty smart because reviewers can cast from the cattle-call of the world where perfection is easy and the accolades are guaranteed. Jamieson has a great voice and impressive presence and he is the perfect foil for Bowen (Antony) in scenes that really cook.” - Lexie Matheson ONZM, Theatreview on Antony & Cleopatra
