

TAWHI THOMAS

Location: Wellington | Height: 182 cm

Hair Colour: Black | Eye Colour: Brown | Ethnicity: European | Ethnicity: Māori | Ethnicity: Pacific Islander

Tawhi is a seasoned playwright, director, and actor with a remarkable career spanning three decades in the performing arts. His portfolio boasts award-winning plays, diverse stage roles, and notable screen appearances. After imparting his expertise as a voice and acting instructor at Toi Whakaari: NZ Drama School, where he himself graduated, Tawhi now returns to his first love as an actor and we are thrilled to be representing him at Collaborate.

Tawhi affiliates to Ngāti Maniapoto.

FEATURE FILM

2024	The Moon is Upside Down	Role: BDM Office Worker	Miss Conception Films & Escapade Pictures - Director: Loren Taylor
-------------	-------------------------	-------------------------	--

TELEVISION

2024	Not Even	Role: James Ake	Miss Conception Films - Director: Ainsley Gardiner
-------------	----------	-----------------	--

COLLABORATE
MANAGEMENT

collaborators@collaborate.co.nz | +64 9 908 9000 | collaborate.co.nz

THEATRE

2023

Treasure Island

Role: Assorted Roles

Circa Theatre - Director: Gavin
Rutherford

SKILLS

Accents	American, English - RP
Dance	Ballroom, Contemporary, Jazz, Rock n Roll
Languages	Te Reo Māori » Basic
Other	Choreography, Director, Script Supervisor
Singing	Baritone, Vocalist
Sports	Pool, Running, Tennis

