

MARK KNOFF-THOMAS

Location: Auckland

Mark Knoff-Thomas is a seasoned business leader and a highly regarded Master of Ceremonies, bringing over a decade of experience as CEO of the Newmarket Business Association in Auckland, New Zealand. In this pivotal role, he champions the interests of more than 3,100 businesses and a workforce of 20,000, showcasing his exceptional advocacy and leadership skills. His outstanding contribution to communication and leadership was formally recognised in 2025, when he was named Communicator of the Year at the annual Public Relations Institute of New Zealand (PRINZ) Year-End Celebration.

As an MC, Mark is celebrated for his professionalism and engaging stage presence. His ability to seamlessly manage events and foster an engaging atmosphere makes him a trusted host for corporate and community gatherings alike. With a natural charisma and strong command of the room, he ensures every event runs smoothly while connecting meaningfully with audiences.

Mark's expertise and confidence also position him as a strong contender for hosting roles in television, particularly in the realms of business and current affairs. His unique combination of leadership experience, eloquence, and authenticity makes him an outstanding choice for any role requiring a dynamic and polished presence.

Whether he's advocating for businesses, facilitating a corporate event, or presenting to a national audience, Mark Knoff-Thomas is a compelling voice and a consummate professional.

SKILLS

Languages	Spanish » Intermediate, French » Intermediate, German » Basic, Samoan » Basic Conversational
Other	Cooking, MC Events & Conferences, Narration, Presenting, Public Speaker, Radio Broadcasting, Radio Presenting, Television Host, Television Presenter, Voiceovers
Sports	Golf, Running, Skiing, Tennis, Weights