PETRA BAGUST

Location: Auckland

Petra Bagust is a trusted and familiar face in Aotearoa, known for her ability to connect with audiences through warmth, humour, and authenticity. With decades of experience across TV, radio, and live events, Petra is a seasoned host who makes every occasion feel special.

From her early days on the cult TV show IceTV to breakfast television, talkback radio, and podcasting, Petra has built a career on genuine curiosity and a passion for meaningful connection. Her natural charm and sharp insight make her an outstanding MC, capable of elevating any event she's part of.

Whether hosting large-scale events like Christmas in the Park, Fight for Life, or The New Zealand Television Awards, or leading more personal gatherings for clients, Petra brings professionalism, energy, and a human touch. Her quick thinking and adaptability mean she handles the unexpected with ease, turning challenges into moments of connection and spontaneity.

Petra's ability to connect deeply with people stems from her commitment to values-driven work. Her involvement with various charities and dedication to learning te reo Māori reflect her genuine care for others and her community. Audiences consistently praise her for creating an atmosphere where everyone feels valued and included.

If you're looking for an MC who combines intelligence, humour, and heartfelt connection, Petra Bagust is the perfect choice. Let her guide your event with her unique blend of warmth, insight, and professionalism.
